

KEN POWE CONCEPTION

NEW CONTEMPORARY JAZZ ALBUM FROM GRAMMY® NOMINATED
KEYBOARDIST & PRODUCER, KEN POWE

Possessing a piano style that has been described in Europe as “like listening to music from heaven,” Ken Powe presents this, his latest Contemporary Jazz album —already one of the most streamed Jazz albums of 2016 on the internet across the globe!

As a performer, songwriter, producer and record label executive, Ken has for decades been a renown contributor to many genres of music ranging from Classical to Jazz to Pop. Though he is proficient in playing more than 20 musical instruments, he is best known and has received most acclaim as a keyboardist. With the skills of a virtuoso on piano, his sought after musical skills continue to be in demand in cities across the US and in several countries in Europe. This is why the concert grand piano is the featured instrument on most of the tracks on Conception.

Classically trained at age 8, Ken honed his musical skill enough to become a professional musician by age 16. After graduating from the University of Alabama with a degree in English, he joined his local AFM union and worked with many widely known artists in concerts and on recordings during the '90s. In the middle of that decade, he was asked to become Vice President/A&R of an independent recording label in Alabama. In 2002, he turned his attention to recording and producing, but never neglected his passion for live performance by playing in concerts, event shows and festivals throughout the U.S. and in Europe and continues to do so to this day. Though experienced in the performance of many genres, Ken is mostly known and recognized internationally for his work in Jazz, R&B, Hip Hop, Pop, Blues and Gospel. His main influences on the piano are Art Tatum, Herbie Hancock, Ramsey Lewis, Monty Alexander and Kenny Kirkland.
